Madras.

Sir,

14-7-8 (E)

Referring to G.O.No. 1019 Public (General), dated 19-8-30, Notification Nos. 214 and 215, I have the honour to request that the orders under section 144 C.P.C. noted therein which expire respectively on 23rd and 31st October 1930 may be extended for a period of two months from their respective dates of expiry. The reason for this recommendation is that considerable numbers of persons sentenced for offences in furtherance of the Civil Disobedience Movement have lately been released or are to be released within the next few days and there is ground for believing that the absence of orders under section 144 would lead to the revival of meetings, processions, demonstrations, etc., in favour of the Civil Disobedience Movement. Experience at the sales of the toddy shops, which have resulted in considerable loss in comparison with last year's prices and the great increase in the wearing of Gandhi caps in the Government College, Bangalore, in the last few days show that there are persons at work behind the scenes who would probably instigate objectionable demonstrations in public places if such were not checked by a prohibitory order. I have just consulted the Superintendent of Police who advises me that the extension of the two orders is necessary. I regret that this recommendation is somewhat late. In the pressure of other important work lately the fact that the earlier order is so soon to expire was overlooked.

Your obedient servant,

K Samuel
